Automatic translated content

Document Delivery – Terms of Service

1. The service is reserved for internal staff, faculty members, and students of the University of Parma affiliated with the following departments:

    - Engineering and Architecture
    - Chemistry, Life Sciences and Environmental Sustainability
    - Food and Drug Sciences
    - Mathematical, Physical and Computer Sciences
    - Veterinary Medicine

The service is provided free of charge, on a reciprocal exchange basis, to state university libraries and libraries of public and research institutions.

2. Four document delivery requests per day are allowed for each user.

3. Documents are supplied for personal use only and for research and study purposes. Any electronic copy received must be deleted after printing. The library declines all responsibility for any use of the documents that does not comply with Law no. 633 of April 22, 1941 (as amended) and with publishers' regulations.

4. Users will be informed in advance if the supply of articles involves a fee. In cases where reimbursement is required by external university libraries, via postal order or bank transfer, the user will be responsible for payment.

5. The requester will be contacted upon arrival of the requested articles and also in the event of any issues or inability to fulfill the request. Processing times depend on the quality of the bibliographic information available, the availability of the article, and the response times of partner libraries.

6. The service is automatically suspended during periods when the library and university facilities are closed.

7. By submitting a request via the online form, SFX, or Nilde, the requester automatically accepts these terms.